- a) receiving and transmitting orders or units of shares in undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities within the meaning of the Regulations of 1989, units in a unit trust, other collective investment scheme instruments, or shares in a company which are listed on a stock exchange or bonds so listed or prize bonds, tracker bonds or Personal Retirement Savings Accounts within the meaning of the Pensions Act, 1990;
- b) acting as a deposit agent or deposit broker

The Handbook of Prudential Requirements for Investment Intermediaries became effective from 1 October 2014 and re-classified all Multi-Agency Intermediaries and Authorised Advisors as Investment Intermediaries. The majority of these firms were deemed authorised under Section 26 of the Act in 2001. Some firms were deemed authorised in 2002/2003 but none since. Please also see the 'Section 10 Register' for investment intermediaries authorised under Section 10 of the Act. If you have any queries on this register, please e-mail postauthorisations@centralbank.ie.
